Christian Counseling Available at CUMC

Dr. Nina Helene has been providing affordable Christian Mental Health and Chemical Dependency counseling to Circleville area residents for 20 years. She holds sessions at CUMC on Thursdays in a private location that protects client anonymity. Dr. Helene's in-person sessions follow the masking, social distancing and sanitation guidelines. She is flexible and has other meeting options available; phone and online doxy.me sessions. Dr. Helene can be contacted at 614-906-6609.

Reminder: If you would like to attend the in-person church service on Sundays, please call the church office at 740.474.4796 or email office@circlevillecommunitychurch.com by 4:00 on Thursdays to make your reservations (office is closed on Fridays). This is to insure we have adequate seating for everyone while keeping social distancing. Thank you.

Foundations for Youth Announcement

School Supply Give Away tomorrow, Friday, August 14 from 3-6 pm at MVC Hannah Park.

Men's Fellowship Group wants to extend a 'thank you' to Cary MacLaughlin. He brought out the griddle and prepared a delicious breakfast for the group.

Dear Friends,

There is plenty of room left for you to sign up for a healthy Low-Fat, Whole Food, Plant-Based meal on Tuesdays, starting September 8. The meal will be prepared and ready for you to pick up at the church at 11 o'clock or 6 o'clock. Register now. We will meet you outside at ENTRANCE G (east side canopy door). You do not get out of the car. You may even bring a friend and treat them.

All money is donated to the Outreach Projects of our church.

Blessings,

Ruth Wilson

Update on the Pipe Organ Repairs

Good news! The pipe organ repairs were completed on 8/13/2020. About 150 pipes were re-leathered by the Muller Pipe Organ Company, in Croton Ohio. Thanks to all who contributed making those repairs possible.
